

SENATOR DIERKS: Well, livestock wells are part of the...that includes livestock wells.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: So if I wanted to dig a livestock well, you'd have to have a permit for that then?

SENATOR DIERKS: This would exempt you from the permit, but the registration is still a necessity.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: So you have to register all livestock wells. How about if I have an acreage on the out...you know, out in the country you put up a house, just an acreage, do you have to dig a well?

SENATOR DIERKS: Well, I think you have to get a permit to do that. I mean you have to have, but it doesn't...you have to be registered but I don't think you need to get a permit.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: You register with the NRD or with the state?

SENATOR DIERKS: With the state.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: With the state.

SENATOR DIERKS: Yeah.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Under the current language in the bill, wouldn't that be with the NRD, though?

SENATOR DIERKS: I think that's right. But then, of course, it goes on back to the state. I mean the NRDs...the registration goes on to the state for filing.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: The NRD then sends it in to the state then.

SENATOR DIERKS: Yeah, I believe that's right.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: So what you're attempting to do then is to put it back so that it will be like it is currently then.

SENATOR DIERKS: That's right, just strike the language in the
